Patient Financial Aid Program
Provides up to $100 per year for all blood cancer patients in active treatment, regardless of income, to help cover some costs associated with transportation, drugs and treatment.

Co-Pay Assistance Program
Provides assistance up to $5,000 per year based on diagnosis and income for insured patients with many, but not all, of our blood cancers. To inquire, call (877) 557-2672, email copay@LLS.org or visit our website at www.lls.org/copay.

Family Support Groups
With professional guidance, patients and family members can gain information and support from others who share similar experiences. (Call 1-800-264-2873 or visit www.lls.org/gat for current dates, times and locations.)

Patti Robinson Kaufmann First Connection Program
Patients and caregivers learn coping skills and gain hope from trained volunteer survivors, who share their special perspective on the recovery process.

Education Programs
We offer educational materials and programs free of charge to help clarify treatment options and strengthen decision-making and coping skills for patients and their families. We also have programs for health care professionals, with continuing education credits for nurses and social workers.

Information Resource Center (IRC)
Health professionals are available at (800) 955-4572 to provide accurate, up-to-date information on blood cancers. The IRC is also available on LLS' Web site (Live Help online) at www.lls.org.

Advocacy
Advocacy volunteers contact their elected representatives to promote government research funding and improvements in public health policy.

Back to School
LLS provides a wealth of informative print and A/V materials that help assure a child's smooth transition from treatment back to school and the activities of daily living.

Honored Hero Program
Honored patients and families provide inspiration for our fundraising events, fueling their efforts to raise funds that support research and help patients.

For more information about these programs, please contact Patient Services.
